MUSIC FINAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- All music requests must be listed with the correct song title, spelling, and artist. There is no guarantee that a request will be played if the song is written with an incorrect title or listed without the correct artist. There are many popular songs with the same title and many artists cover the same song with their own version. Bravura reserves the right to play any version of a song listed if an artist is not specified.
- Following a music final, all changes and/or additions to your music requests must be submitted in writing via email. Bravura will send you an email response confirming all changes were made and your form has been fully updated.
- Bravura does not accept changes and/or additions past your (Music Final Time Block) located on Bravura's entertainment contract. We do not accept music changes and/or additional requests that are called in or verbally left on our studio voicemail. Again, Bravura WILL NOT accept changes and/or additions to the music and entertainment details on the week of your event. You may make additional requests pertaining to the music and entertainment details during the reception with our entertainment team, however; any and all music requests that were not submitted within the Music Final Time Block are subject to Bravura's availability and are not guaranteed.
- Bravura does not allow outside vendors and/or guests to use company equipment for amplification purposes. All performers and/or outside vendors arranged by client must have their own equipment and/or amplification.
- Bravura's microphone systems are only to be used by guests during the champagne toast and must be listed on client's music final form. Bravura will not allow guests to use company microphone systems during the reception.
- Bravura is not responsible for CDs and/or DVDs submitted to our staff at the music final and/or wedding reception. If you are submitting DVDs for viewing purposes and/or CDs containing music requests and/or edited tracks, please use copies only.

I have read the above and fully understand Bravura's terms and conditions.

(Must print full name as it appears on Bravura's entertainment contract)
